Displaying Results

- The report results will be displayed
- To see only the hours that are subject to loss for the given year right click on the Deduction To column, select set filter, choose today's date through 6/30/XX (use applicable year), and click the green check mark

The Total Remain column will show the current vacation time remaining, that is subject to loss, for the applicable year. You may choose to filter on that column or export to excel. You can now send reminders as needed.
